Why attend the Multifamily Exchange?

Efficiency: Over two and a half days, you will meet with 16+ suppliers, while having access to many more at our social receptions. There isn't a more efficient way to meet with leading suppliers in the industry!

Focus: You meet with the suppliers of your choice, and each meeting is a focused, 20 minute sit down.

Networking: In addition to conversations with suppliers, you are also able to network with fellow multifamily builders, owners, and management companies.

"I have come to this event every year and it just keeps getting better and better. Sourcing new products and talking directly with suppliers saves us money."

- FPI Management

The Multifamily Exchange offers qualified multifamily purchasers direct access to corporate decision-makers from top manufacturers and service providers. The unique format of the Exchange allows suppliers to focus on addressing your individual needs and customizing a specific proposal for you.

Purchasers attend at no cost!
